

Title	Bourke Street Bakery
Author	Paul Allam and David McGuinness
ISBN	9781741964332
Imprint	Murdoch Books
Binding	Hardback with jacket
Extent	368 pages
Dimensions	250 x 190mm
RRP	$69.95
Release Date	September 2009

Description

Situated in the hip foodie enclave of Sydney's Surry Hills is the original Bourke Street Bakery, a cosy nook selling artisanal baked goods of the highest order. The bakery's long queue of customers waiting for their daily fix is testament to the popularity of their utterly delicious wares – from rustic breads such as their famous spelt sourdough to the flaky pork and fennel sausage rolls and the most addictive sweet pastries like ginger brulée and pistachio tart.

Bourke Street Bakery is the ultimate baking companion with clear and concise instructions, aimed at the novice home baker while remaining an inspirational and technical reference for professionals of the crust and crumb world.

Passionate owner-bakers Paul Allam and David McGuinness share their secrets for more than 90 of their exceptional creations. This book's beautiful and inviting photography captures the mouthwatering detail of the buttery, crumbly fare as well as the infectious vibe of the bakery itself.

Sales Points

- The famous Sydney bakery shares its secrets in this comprehensive baking companion: from bread to sweet and savoury tarts and pastries to irresistible cakes
- All recipes featured in the book can be made in a standard kitchen oven and the instructions are easy to follow
- Fresh, contemporary design and mouth-watering photography will attract a new generation of readers and rekindle the passion in experienced bakers
- Point of sale available: A2 poster (ISBN 9787777007944) and postcards (pack of 50, ISBN 9787777007869)

Author Profile

Paul Allam and David McGuinness are both well-travelled chefs with a passion for good food and artisan baked goods. India was David's inspiration for the bakery's famous ginger brulée and pistachio tart. They started Bourke Street Bakery in 2004 and opened Central Baking Depot in Sydney's CBD in 2008.