Description

It is no exaggeration to say that The Country Women's Association Cookbook is an Australian icon. Absolutely packed with hard-working, practical recipes, this has been an essential cookbook in Australian kitchens for generations.

First published over seventy years ago, Murdoch Books are now very proud to be publishing the 17th edition of The Country Women's Association Cookbook. The recipes in the first edition came from entries sent in for a cookery competition run by The Land newspaper. It has been enhanced and shaped from there. This 17th edition will be the first metric edition of this classic collection.

These are recipes that have been passed through generations of country women, swapped over countless kitchen tables and cooked up in thousands of homes. If you want to make a perfect tomato chutney or German coffee cake, lentil soup or pork pie, this is where you'll find the recipe.
