Description

The Homework Book is the ideal companion for anyone who spent their school days gazing out of the window, and now realises how much they missed out on. It provides a full education, covering all the key areas in twenty easy lessons.

None of the information contained in The Homework Book is outdated or defunct – it's right up-to-date, and conveyed in a lively way that will inform and entertain. It's the ideal book for any parent who feels out of their depth when talking to their kids about what they learned in class.

For clarity and ease of use, The Homework Book is divided into five days – Monday to Friday – and then subdivided into four single-subject lessons. Each lesson is based around the five Ws: Who, What, Where, When and Why. Readers can choose to dip in to a lesson at random, read through a whole day, or start from the beginning and keep going to the end.

Accessible text and useful fact boxes allow readers to pick up the key points quickly, and summary boxes help to check understanding. And for that authentic school experience, each day in The Homework Book ends with a test – except this time you get to grade yourself. If you're feeling brave, you could even get your kids to take the tests too, and see which of you is the smartest.

Sales Points

- Fill the gaps and rediscover the joy of learning in the comfort of your own home
- The Homework Book provides you with a full education in twenty easy lessons, with Q&A sections to test yourself
- Rove McManus' show 'Are You Smarter Than a Fifth Grader?' on Channel Ten saw adults test their school knowledge against kids and it rated extremely well in its timeslot
- Great gift hardcover format, perfect for the counter of your shop for the back-to-school period
