

Title	Made in France: Blackwork
Author	Sonia Lucano
ISBN	9781741966022
Imprint	Murdoch Books
Binding	Paperback with flaps
Extent	144 pages
Dimensions	250 x 205 mm
RRP	$34.95
Release Date	July 2010
Category	Craft

Description

Made in France: Blackwork takes a modern approach to the ancient art of blackwork. The 50 projects in this book show how simple embroidery stitches worked on a contrasting background can be used to embellish a multitude of charming gifts, accessories and homewares.

Follow the easy instructions and learn how the repetition of a few basic stitches results in an endless variety of intricate patterns and designs. You'll be seduced by this timeless and elegant form of embroidery.

Sales Points

- This is the fourth title in the popular Made in France craft series. Also available: Made in France: Cross-stitch and embroidery in red, white and blue (ISBN 9781741963861, RRP $34.95), Made in France: Linen and Thread (ISBN 9781741966039, RRP $34.95), and Made in France: Knitting (ISBN 9781741966046, RRP $34.95)
- The 50 projects are each beautifully photographed
- A full page grid is provided for every motif and the book includes 7 illustrations of embroidery stitches for easy reference
- Use the motifs to transform and embellish an endless array of homewares and accessories

Author Profile

Sonia Lucano began as a fashion stylist following her graduation from art school. These days, she alternates between fashion and the decorative arts. Interested in all forms of craftwork and very hands-on, she loves to collect fabrics, play with colour, create, style and customise. She is, by turns, a photography stylist for publishers and magazines, creator of decorative objects and fashion accessories and author of Felted Wool, How to Customize Your Home and Glass Engraving.

