MURDOCH BOOKS

There's nothing like an embellishment to give new life to an old cushion or tablecloth, or add sparkle to a plain pair of shoes. This bumper book explores some of the most popular ways, through beading, embroidery, crochet and knitting. Whether you are a complete beginner wishing to learn the fundamentals of a craft, or an experienced craft maker seeking to expand your skills, this book will provide plenty to stimulate and challenge you.

The basics of each craft are explained with clear step-by-step photographs, and a wide range of achievable projects is offered, including jewellery, homewares, accessories, gifts and novelties.

- ❖ Clearly explained techniques sections make these books suitable for novices
- ❖ A variety of projects, suitable for craftspeople of all skill levels
- ❖ Step-by-step instructions and photographs
