

World Kitchen Spain and Morocco

Title	World Kitchen Spain
ISBN	9781741964400
Title	World Kitchen Morocco
ISBN	9781741964394
Imprint	Murdoch Books
Binding	Paperback with flaps
Extent	256 pages
Dimensions	260 x 210mm
RRP	$34.95 each
Release Date	March 2010
Category	Cooking

World Kitchen: Spain and World Kitchen: Morocco are the latest titles in a new series of six culinary journeys exploring the influences of geography, climate, culture and tradition that have shaped some of the world's most popular cuisines. Venture into the behind-the-scenes world of growers, artisans and chefs, and learn how their passion for their work helps maintain and re-interpret the traditions and flavours of a nation's food.

More than 150 recipes are featured in each book, selected to best reflect the unique characteristics of each country's cuisine. Lavishly illustrated with location photographs as well as images of finished dishes and authentic cooking techniques, the World Kitchen series is a source of inspiration for the cook and an evocation of a place many people will remember fondly from their travels and others will now yearn to experience.

World Kitchen: Spain takes you to the famous tapas bars, the seafood restaurants, the home kitchens and the sweet world of Spanish desserts. Beautiful location and food photography bring the Iberian Peninsula right into your own kitchen.

In World Kitchen: Morocco you are invited to experience the versatility of Moroccan cuisine. From simple street food to traditional home cooking, sumptuous festive food and sweet delights, World Kitchen Morocco covers all the essentials.

Sales Points

- Each volume is a culinary travel guide and cookbook all in one
- Special features on aspects of agriculture and food production spotlight the individual country's traditions of cooking at home and restaurant dining
- The books are lavishly illustrated with beautiful food and location photographs
- Clear instructions and detailed methods will enable any cook to master the dishes of the world's most delicious cuisines