

World Kitchen: Thailand and Italy

Title World Kitchen: Thailand
ISBN 9781741965230

Title World Kitchen: Italy
ISBN 9781741964738

Imprint Murdoch Books
Binding Paperbacks with flaps
Extent 256 pages
Dimensions 260 x 210mm
RRP $34.95 each
Release Date February 2010
Category Cooking

Description

World Kitchen: Thailand and World Kitchen: Italy are the first two titles in a new series of six culinary journeys exploring the influences of geography, climate, culture and tradition that have shaped some of the world's most popular cuisines. Venture into the behind-the-scenes world of growers, artisans and chefs, and learn how their passion for their work helps maintain and re-interpret the traditions and flavours of a nation's food.

More than 150 recipes are featured, selected to best reflect the unique characteristics of each country's cuisine. Lavishly illustrated with location photographs as well as images of finished dishes and authentic cooking techniques, the World Kitchen series is a source of inspiration for the cook and an evocation of a place many people will remember fondly from their travels and others will now yearn to experience.

World Kitchen: Thailand invites you to sample a wide range of dishes including Yellow Chicken Curry with Peppercorns, Beef with Thai sweet Basil Leaves, Steamed Fish with Preserved Plum and Won Ton Soup with Prawns, to name but a few.

In World Kitchen: Italy dishes like chargrilled octopus, the world-famous Pizza Quattro Stagioni, polenta with wild mushrooms and a dessert of coffee tiramisù will have fans of Italian cuisine on the edge of their seats.

Sales Points

- Each volume is a culinary travel guide and cookbook all in one
- Special features on aspects of agriculture and food production spotlight the individual country's traditions of cooking at home and restaurant dining
- The books are lavishly illustrated with beautiful food and location photographs
- Clear instructions and detailed methods will enable any cook to master the dishes of the world's most delicious cuisines